CONNECTIVITY

Free Wi-Fi

Register for free public Wi-Fi service with your foreign number at any Wireless@SG hotspot across Singapore, and receive your login details via an SMS message. Overseas charges may apply. Alternatively, you can rent a pocket Wi-Fi device at Singapore Visitor Centre (orchardgateway) or Changi Recommends at Changi Airport.

SIM Card

Telcos in Singapore have ceased the provision of 2G network in Singapore. To attain 3G/4G roaming, buy a Singapore prepaid SIM card from Singapore Visitor Centre (orchardgateway), Changi Recommends or telecommunications retail shops located at the airport, major shopping malls and convenience stores islandwide.

HANDY TIPS

Follow these pointers to make the best of your stay.

GST Refund

Payment by cash and cards is safe and efficient in Singapore. Tipping is not a common practice as service charge has been factored into the Goods and Services Tax (GST). As a tourist in Singapore, you can claim a refund on 7% GST under the Tourist Tax Refund Scheme if you make any purchase more than S$100 at the participating shops. Here's how to go about it:

1. Look out for these signs at the shops.

2. Choose one credit/debit card as a Token for tagging your purchases. Don't forget to ask for your eTRS Ticket, original invoice or receipt.
3. Apply for your tax refund at the eTRS self-help kiosks located at Singapore Changi Airport's Departure Hall and Departure Transit Lounge of Terminals 1, 2, 3 and 4, as well as at the ICA duty office at Seletar Airport. Be sure to file your GST claims before checking in your goods.
4. At the eTRS kiosk, swipe your assigned Token to retrieve your purchase details. Otherwise, scan your eTRS tickets to retrieve your purchase details.
5. You can choose to have the refund credited directly into your credit card at the eTRS self-help kiosk, or get a cash refund. If you chose the latter (available only at Changi International Airport), proceed to the Central Refund Counter after the immigration checks.
6. Alternatively, apply for tax refunds with the Touregogo app, a mobile tourist tax refund solution that is downloadable from the Apple App Store or Google Play Store. Get your refund ticket issued directly to an e-wallet. Touregogo also provides users with the latest shopping, food and travel tips for an overall fuss-free journey in Singapore.

Visit Singapore Travel Guide

Local Tips

- Keep to the left on escalators, especially during peak hours.
- When taking public transport, always give way to alighting passengers. Board buses from the front door and exit by the rear door. Remember to press the 'stop' button early.
- Some items like pets and durians are not allowed on public transport.

- Singaporeans love queueing. If you see a queue, check out what's at the front of it—you might be in for a treat!
- Singapore does not have a tipping culture, but if you'd like to express your appreciation for the service you have received, please feel free to do so.

Mobile e-payments

Running out of cash while shopping? These electronic payment apps will make sorting notes and coins a thing of the past. Electronic payments are widely accepted by various merchants across our island.

Download:

Look out for VIA's logo should you have a compatible e-wallet under VIA alliance.

Alipay: Usage of Alipay's mobile payment function may be restricted beyond mainland Chinese users
VIA™: VIA™ is Asia's 1st cross border mobile payment alliance that allows you to use your local mobile wallet overseas. Simply look out for the VIA™ logo to pay via QR. Find out more at viaconnects.com

WHAT THE SINGLISH?

English is Singapore's primary language, though our English is peppered with colloquial expressions that you can easily pick up.

Makan

A Malay expression referring to food or the act of eating.

“There are many shiok makan places in this neighbourhood—here, it's makan time, all the time!”

Shiok

An expression of great satisfaction and pleasure.

“The food in hawker centres like Lau Pa Sat and Tekka Market is very shiok!”

Tapao

The Singlish equivalent of takeaway.

“If you can't finish your makan, you can always tapao.”

Paiseh

Paiseh means “it's not courteous of me to do/say this”, so you might hear a Singaporean say “paiseh” if he or she is late, makes a mistake, is embarrassed or is informing you that you are breaking a rule.

Raffles in Southeast Asia: Revisiting the Scholar and Statesman

Sir Stamford Raffles—author of The History of Java, and collector of natural history and cultural materials from Southeast Asia—is known for establishing modern Singapore as a British port. He has been viewed as a scholarly expert in the region, a progressive reformer, a committed imperialist, and even a plagiariser. Co-curated with the British Museum, and keeping with the Asian Civilisations Museum's mission to explore encounters and connections, this exhibition presents a multi-layered picture of Raffles, and illustrates that his legacy is more complex than often understood.

02 TreeTop Walk

Anchored by Singapore's Central Catchment Area, the MacRitchie Nature Trail and Reservoir Park is a popular destination amongst nature lovers, trekkers and water sports enthusiasts. Enjoy breath-taking views from atop the TreeTop Walk, a 250-metre-long free-standing suspension bridge that spans across the two highest points in MacRitchie.

🚏 Marymount

03 The Southern Ridges

Great for hiking and bird-watching, this ten-kilometre trail provides you the opportunity to encounter the array of flora and fauna that inhabit Kent Ridge Park, HortPark, Telok Blangah Hill, Labrador Nature Reserve and Mount Faber Park. The highest pedestrian bridge in Singapore, futuristic Henderson Waves is a popular photo spot with families, couples and joggers. At the end of your trek, you can take a scenic cable car ride to Sentosa from atop Faber Peak.

🚏 Labrador Park

04 Sungei Buloh Wetland Reserve

Get up close with a wide variety of biodiversity when you stroll along the boardwalks of this extensive mangrove forest. A popular bird-watching site, this diverse nature park is also a crucial refuelling stop for migratory birds that travel between Siberia and Australia. 10 MUST DO'S WHILE YOU'RE IN SINGAPORE

- Try a durian—the spiky, strong-smelling tropical fruit that's loved by many Singaporeans.
- Explore Singapore's only UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Singapore Botanic Gardens.
- Visit National Gallery Singapore, which houses the world's largest display of Southeast Asian modern art.
- Get up-close with wildlife at our award-winning Singapore Zoo.
- Indulge in countless local and international brands along our famed shopping belt of Orchard Road.
- Party it up in Zouk, which is ranked among the world's best nightclubs.
- Have a drink at Manhattan, Asia's number one bar.
- Soak in stunning views from the infinity pool atop Marina Bay Sands®.
- Bungy jump off Singapore's first and only bungy tower at AJ Hackett Sentosa.
- Immerse in local heritage at our cultural precincts—Chinatown, Joo Chiat/Katong, Kampong Glam and Little India.

MULTICULTURAL CHINATOWN

This season, our multi-ethnic Chinatown will be decked in vibrant lights and decorations in celebration of the Lunar New Year. If you're lucky, you might even come across a lion dance performance.

01 Chinatown Heritage Centre

Gain keen insights into Chinese culture when you visit the Chinatown Heritage Centre (48 Pagoda Street), where you can sign up for a variety of tours, including ones led by a tour guide dressed in a samsui woman attire. While you're there, you may also take your pick from the many unique souvenirs available.

02 Contemporary Wall Murals

Take a stroll around Chinatown and you'll be awed by this neighbourhood's many contemporary murals, painted by local professional accountant, Yip Yew Chong. His passion for painting further led to his newly commissioned works along Pagoda Street and Mohamed Ali Lane within the precinct.

03 Festive Street Bazaar

Explore the Festive Street Bazaar (18 Jan - 4 Feb 2019) along Pagoda, Trengganu, Smith and Sago Streets during this Chinese New Year season. A variety of stalls will be lining the streets, and you can take your pick from an assortment of traditional Chinese decorations, handicrafts and festive snacks.

04 Bib Gourmand Nasi Lemak

Savour the Michelin Bib Gourmand nasi lemak (rice cooked in coconut milk, served with an array of side dishes) of The Coconut Club (6 Ann Siang Hill). This air-conditioned eatery allows you to dine in comfort while enjoying a contemporary rendition of this traditional dish. For desserts, sample the chendol (an iced dessert topped with green rice flour jelly, red beans, coconut milk and palm sugar) or the variety of kueh (bite-sized snacks) served here.

05 A Multicultural and Multi-Ethnic Precinct

Discover the many historic places of worship located within the multicultural precinct of Chinatown. Look out for the Buddha Tooth Relic Temple (288 South Bridge Road), Sri Mariamman Temple (244 South Bridge Road) and Masjid Jamee (218 South Bridge Road), all located adjacent to one another along the same street. A stone's throw away is the Nagore Dargah Indian Muslim Heritage Centre (140 Telok Ayer Street), a shrine built between 1828 and 1830 by early immigrants from South India. This heritage centre will provide you with a better understanding of the rich history of the Indian-Muslim diaspora.

JUST A TEN-MINUTE RIDE AWAY IS...

Tiong Bahru, a hip neighbourhood that's home to indie labels and old-school architecture. Check out new and vintage vinyls at Curated Records (55 Tiong Bahru Road) and local books at BooksActually (9 Yong Siak Road). Those who fancy some hands-on activities can learn flower arrangement at workshops held by One Olive (61 Seng Poh Lane). Countless local delicacies are also available around the neighbourhood, especially at Tiong Bahru Market (30 Seng Poh Road). Don't leave so soon—take your time to wander around and admire the Streamline Moderne architecture, wall murals and sculptural art that pepper this enclave.

MAKAN TIME

Tuck into our city's best local dishes.

01 Laksa

This spicy coconut milk-based noodle soup is served with eggs, shrimp and cakes of soy bean. Flavoured with many spices, laksa is synonymous with Singapore and many hawkers have produced different variations.
