CONNECTIVITY

Free Wi-Fi

Register for free public Wi-Fi service with your foreign number at any Wireless@SG hotspot across Singapore, and receive your login details via an SMS message. Overseas charges may apply. Alternatively, you can rent a pocket Wi-Fi device at Singapore Visitor Centre (orchardgateway), Changi Recommends at Changi Airport.

SIM Card

Telcos in Singapore have ceased the provision of 2G network in Singapore. To attain 3G/4G roaming, buy a Singapore prepaid SIM card from Singapore Visitor Centre (orchardgateway), Changi Recommends or telecommunications retail shops located at the airport, major shopping malls and convenience stores islandwide.

HANDY TIPS

Follow these pointers to make the best of your stay.

GST Refund

Payment by cash and cards is safe and efficient in Singapore. Tipping is not a common practice as service charge has been factored into the Goods and Services Tax (GST). As a tourist in Singapore, you can claim a refund on 7% GST under the Tourist Tax Refund Scheme if you make any purchase more than S$100 at the participating shops. Here's how to go about it:

1. Look out for these signs at the shops.

2. Choose one credit/debit card as a Token for tagging your purchases. Don't forget to ask for your eTRS Ticket, original invoice or receipt.
3. Apply for your tax refund at the eTRS self-help kiosks located at Singapore Changi Airport's Departure Hall and Departure Transit Lounge of Terminals 1, 2, 3 and 4, as well as at the ICA duty office at Seletar Airport. Be sure to file your GST claims before checking in your goods.
4. At the eTRS kiosk, swipe your assigned Token to retrieve your purchase details. Otherwise, scan your eTRS tickets to retrieve your purchase details.
5. You can choose to have the refund credited directly into your credit card at the eTRS self-help kiosk, or get a cash refund. If you chose the latter (available only at Changi International Airport), proceed to the Central Refund Counter after the immigration checks.
6. Alternatively, apply for tax refunds with the Tourego app, a mobile tourist tax refund solution that is downloadable from the Apple App Store or Google Play Store. Get your refund ticket issued directly to an e-wallet. Tourego also provides users with the latest shopping, food and travel tips for an overall fuss-free journey in Singapore.

Muslim-friendly Destination

Singapore's diverse, multi-ethnic community offers many Muslim-friendly facilities. This includes facilities ranging from Halal-certified or Muslim-owned eating establishments to prayer rooms in most* major attractions, hotels and shopping malls. For a full list of mosques in Singapore, visit www.muis.gov.sg/mosque

* Do check in with the individual establishments on the facilities available.

Visit Singapore Travel Guide

Download and try the enhanced Visit Singapore Travel Guide app (available on iOS) for tips and recommendations on hidden gems in the city. Choose places of interest according to your Passion Tribes, explore Singapore with ease and discover the latest events in town.

Local Tips

- Keep to the left on escalators, especially during peak hours.
- When taking public transport, always give way to alighting passengers. Board buses from the front door and exit by the rear door. Remember to press the 'stop' button early.
- Some items like pets and durians are not allowed on public transport.

- Singaporeans love queueing. If you see a queue, check out what's at the front of it—you might be in for a treat!
- Singapore does not have a tipping culture, but if you'd like to express your appreciation for the service you have received, please feel free to do so.

Mobile e-payments

Running out of cash while shopping? These electronic payment apps will make sorting notes and coins a thing of the past. Electronic payments are widely accepted by various merchants across our island.

Look out for VIA's logo should you have a compatible e-wallet under VIA alliance.

Alipay: Usage of Alipay's mobile payment function may be restricted beyond mainland Chinese users

VIA™: VIA™ is Asia's 1st cross border mobile payment alliance that allows you to use your local mobile wallet overseas. Simply look out for the VIA™ logo to pay via QR. Find out more at viaconnects.com

WHAT THE SINGLISH?

English is Singapore's primary language, though our English is peppered with colloquial expressions that you can easily pick up.

Makan

A Malay expression referring to food or the act of eating.

“There are many shiok makan places in this neighbourhood—here, it's makan time, all the time!”

Shiok

An expression of great satisfaction and pleasure.

“The food in hawker centres like Lau Pa Sat and Tekka Market is very shiok!”

Tapao

The Singlish equivalent of takeaway.

“If you can't finish your makan, you can always tapao.”

Bojio

A Hokkien phrase locals use when not invited to an activity or event.

“You went to get coffee without me this morning? Bojio!”

10 MUST DO'S WHILE YOU'RE IN SINGAPORE

- ☒ Try a durian—the spiky, strong-smelling tropical fruit that's loved by many Singaporeans.
- ☒ Explore Singapore's only UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Singapore Botanic Gardens.
- ☒ Visit National Gallery Singapore, which houses the world's largest display of Southeast Asian modern art.
- ☒ Get up-close with wildlife at our award-winning Singapore Zoo.
- ☒ Indulge in countless local and international brands along our famed shopping belt of Orchard Road.
- ☒ Party it up in Zouk, which is ranked among the world's best nightclubs.
- ☒ Have a drink at Manhattan, Asia's number one bar.
- ☒ Soak in stunning views from the infinity pool atop Marina Bay Sands®.
- ☒ Bungy jump off Singapore's first and only bungy tower at AJ Hackett Sentosa.
- ☒ Immerse in local heritage at our cultural precincts—Chinatown, Joo Chiat/Katong, Kampong Glam and Little India.

KAMPONG SPIRIT

Kampong Glam has its origins as a thriving port town and is Singapore's oldest urban quarter. In Malay, the word kampong means "compound", while glam is often attributed to the gelam (long-leaved paperbark tree), which was found and used locally for boat-making, medicine and even as a food seasoning. This historic Muslim quarter will be especially vibrant during the fasting month of Ramadan, which is when you can expect vibrant street light-ups and night bazaars.

01 Fuel up at acclaimed eateries

Tuck into hearty nasi padang (mixed rice with side dishes) at Warong Nasi Pariaman (738 North Bridge Road) or Rumah Makan Minang (18 & 18A Kandahar Street). At these iconic multigenerational restaurants, you can savour traditional favourites like beef rendang (braised beef cooked in coconut milk and spices) and ayam masak merah (chicken in spicy tomato sauce). For a taste of fusion Malay cuisine, head to restaurants like The Malayan Council (71 Bussorah Street) or Hararu Izakaya (16 Bussorah Street).

02 Discover the heritage of Kampong Glam

Prominently located in the heart of Kampong Glam, you won't miss Sultan Mosque (3 Muscat Street) and its massive golden domes. To let all Muslims contribute to its construction regardless of their social statuses, the mosque accepted glass bottle ends from poor Muslims, which now decorate the bases of these domes. The Sultan Mosque is an iconic place of worship, and if you are there during the Muslim fasting month of Ramadan (pg 9), check out the night market in this neighbourhood and its many food stalls. To gain a better understanding of the history of Singapore's Malay community, visit the Malay Heritage Centre (85 Sultan Gate).

03 Take your pick from traditional and modern wares

Follow the neighbourhood's colourful murals as you explore Haji Lane's array of independent boutiques and modern indie labels. On the other side of Haji Lane, Arab Street displays a spread of traditional accessories, ceramics, decorations and garments for you to take your pick.

04 Sunset transforms these historic streets

After an adventurous day, unwind along hip Haji Lane, which is one of the narrowest streets in Singapore. Offering a wide range of drinking, dining and entertainment options, Haji Lane also hosts a variety of street performances and parties. Check out Good Luck Beerhouse (9 Haji Lane) for a revolving menu of craft beers on tap or chill out in Going Om (63 Haji Lane), where upstart musicians are invited to take the stage. These performances tend to spill out onto the streets on busy nights.

SOAK IN THE FESTIVE ATMOSPHERE OF THE GEYLANG SERAI BAZAAR

Geylang Serai's festive decorations and colourful lights line a vivacious night market that serves seemingly countless variations of traditional and fusion foods. Throughout the fasting month of Ramadan, families come to this pop-up bazaar to browse an array of garments, ornaments and more. You can even have henna art done at this bazaar, which gets into full swing once the sun sets and lasts till Hari Raya Aidilfitri.
