As the season draws near, the world’s fastest drivers will race under bright lights at speeds of up to 325km/h at the FORMULA 1 Singapore Airlines Singapore Grand Prix 2023 happening from 15 to 17 September. The backdrop of this exhilarating night race is the stunning Marina Bay Circuit set against Singapore’s skyline and iconic landmarks such as the Singapore Flyer, the Merlion and the National Gallery Singapore. The high-octane weekend will also include on track activities such as meet-and-greet sessions with the drivers on 15 and 16 September at Zone 1 Wharf Stage for those with valid Zone 1 tickets on the corresponding days. You can also catch the drivers as they are chauffeured around the track in vintage cars on 17 September in the Formula 1 Drivers’ Parade.

The stellar entertainment line-up includes big names like Robbie Williams, Post Malone, Kings of Leon, The Kooks, Culture Club and a slew of Asian artists from 88rising including Jackson Wang. You can view the entertainment line-up here.
Singapore’s best day-to-night entertainment area, Clarke Quay offers a wide array of dining and lifestyle options for everyone. Soak in beautiful sunset views over a romantic riverside meal, or hang out with friends before partying it up at the latest nightspots where talented local and international DJs take the stage.

A historic riverside area, Clarke Quay runs along the north bank of the Singapore River between the north of Boat Quay and Clemenceau Avenue. It used to be a bustling historic trading district and has gone through conservation and revitalisation over the years. Today, it is a must-visit riverside destination for travellers, party goers and foodies alike.

During the Grand Prix Season Singapore, visitors can look forward to the Clarke Quay precinct party that features pop-up stores, music from up-and-coming musicians, fitness fun and a chance at sim racing.
The best up-and-coming performers from around the world come together at the largest platform for emerging artists in Asia during this Grand Prix Season Singapore. Expect a dynamic line up of over 30 international and local bands.

While rubber burns at the track, burn off some calories at Fitness Fest feat. Les Mills. This one-of-a-kind training experience keeps your heart rate up with epic music, lights, energy, and the debut of the newest fitness innovations.
Don’t miss out on a chance to see your favourite FORMULA 1 and FORMULA 2 drivers in person! Catch Nico Hulkenberg, Pietro Fittipaldi and Brad Benavides in action at a first-of-its-kind demo race between top local sim racers and professional drivers.

Explore this bustling alley lined with pop-up stores that are sure to provide inspiration on what to wear during your next big night out. Turn heads on the dance floor with fashion picks from this bazaar that encompasses the essence of club life – a theme befitting of Clarke Quay.
KAMPONG GELAM PRECINCT PARTY

One of Singapore’s most historic districts, Kampong Gelam is also where modernity meets tradition. Once allocated as an area for the Malay, Arab and Bugis communities, Kampong Gelam is now a treasure trove bursting with trendy boutiques, places to shop for traditional crafts and a diverse mix of cafes and restaurants.

Side by side with the majestic Sultan Mosque and the Malay Heritage Centre is vibrant street art. Kampong Gelam is also home to Singapore’s first outdoor gallery featuring 30 works of street art and wall murals by local and international artists. This area is where old truly meets new.

The Grand Prix Season Singapore adds to the vibrancy of this precinct. Enjoy cultural activities and events in this charming neighbourhood and experience a side of Singapore that’s truly unique.

Always beaming with lights, music and a lively party vibe, this street block party celebrates the Grand Prix Season Singapore with two music zones - one for the house and electronic rave fans and another for the pop lovers and hip-hop heads.
ORCHARD ROAD PRECINCT PARTY

Singapore’s ultimate shopping district is especially vibrant during the Grand Prix Season Singapore 2023. The bustling boulevard offers such a myriad of retail and dining options that will leave you spoiled for choice.

Orchard Road used to be filled with fruit orchards and spice farms. Now, it is a shopping haven for both global fashion labels and unique, one-of-a-kind homegrown design brands. Treat yourself to local and international flavours that will satisfy every appetite and look out for what’s in store this GPSS on its lively streets, such as live music performances, art and a lifestyle bazaar.

Explore this bustling district and join in the exciting activities and events along the stretch catered specifically for the Grand Prix Season Singapore 2023.

Formulate strategies, showcase your skills and emerge victorious to claim prizes. Winners will also have a chance to spin the lucky wheel and walk away with even more rewards.
TIPS TO MAKE THE MOST OF GPSS

Here’s how to have an amazing time uncovering all the Grand Prix Season Singapore has to offer.

1. Dress for comfort
Expect to walk a lot so be sure to pack your comfiest footwear. Light, breathable clothing and a hat will also ensure that you stay cool in Singapore’s heat and humidity. The weather can be unpredictable so make sure to bring an umbrella or poncho too.

2. Stay hydrated
Carry a reusable water bottle to stay hydrated throughout the day. Some attractions in Singapore – such as museums and parks – also have water dispensers where you can fill up your bottle. That said, Singapore’s tap water is potable, so there’s no harm in refilling straight from the tap.

3. Get assistance at Singapore Visitor Centre kiosks
If you find yourself in need of guidance, support or recommendations, visit the Singapore Visitor Centres for help. These hubs offer information, maps, and local insights to ensure your stay in Singapore is a great one.
TIPS FOR GETTING AROUND SINGAPORE

Navigate Singapore with ease by keeping these tips in mind:

1. Use public transport
Embrace the connectivity and efficiency of Singapore’s public transportation system. Most of the GPSS events and activities are conveniently located near an MRT station, making travelling around much easier. Find out about routes and timings for train services at SMRT and bus services at SBS.

2. Stay informed about road closures
Keep up to date with road closures to navigate the city with minimal disruptions during the Grand Prix. Roads around the Marina Bay Circuit, such as Bayfront Avenue, Collyer Quay, Stamford Road, Republic Boulevard and Esplanade Drive, among others, will be closed to all traffic. Find detailed information at LTA Road Closures.

3. Be prepared for emergencies
Familiarise yourself with emergency numbers, including the local police (999) and ambulance services (995). Your safety is paramount, and having the right contacts at your fingertips will provide peace of mind.
Have a blast at GPSS!
