READY, SET, SHOP!

Shopping is one of Singapore's national pastimes, and you couldn't have picked a better time to be here in this amazing city if you're looking to nab some great deals. The Great Singapore Sale (known as the GSS' to locals) is a highlight of the year for shopaholics, with retailers discounting original prices by anything up to 70%. You'll find great deals on just about everything, from fashion to jewellery, electronics to toys, even spa treatments, hotel stays, restaurants and bars, and visits to local attractions; it's a bargain hunter's dream!

The Red Dot may be small in size, but there are numerous shopping districts to discover and explore, from the glossy designer stores lining Orchard Road, to the offbeat quirkiness of local boutiques in some of Singapore's hippest neighbourhoods. For more information on the best shopping spots, take a look at the handy guides inside.

At some point, you'll want to leave the shops and malls for authentic local experiences in Singapore. Whether you have a week to dive deep or a weekend to scratch the surface, you'll discover Singapore's secrets at every turn. There are rich cultural experiences, stylish bars, innovative restaurants, hawkers serving authentic local dishes, incredible landscapes and so much more to discover. For further inspiration, take a look inside at the top 10 things to do during the GSS.

UnionPay is the new official card of the GSS. Make the most of the sale with a UnionPay card: it makes shopping easy! Widely accepted throughout Singapore, and the rest of the world, you can rest assured all of your transactions will be efficient, cost-effective and secure.

What's more, you'll receive additional promotions, offers, benefits and more during the GSS. Keep reading for further information on the extra perks you'll receive at Singapore's best-loved stores and tourist attractions when using a UnionPay card. Don't have a UnionPay card? To enjoy all of the offers listed within, visit www.unionpayintl.com for information on how you can apply for a UnionPay card.

Happy shopping!

HANDY TIPS.

TRANSPORT

Taxi fares start from $3.00. MRT trains typically run from 5.30am to 12.00am. Standard tickets vary from $1.40 to $2.70. Bus fares start from as low as 79 cents. Try to have exact fare as bus drivers do not give change.

SHOPPING

For a pleasant shopping experience, compare prices, enquire about refund policies, and check the invoice as well as the warranty of the product before making a purchase.

More information and shopping tips can be found on the Consumer Advisory section at YourSingapore.com (under "Traveller Essentials"). For assistance or to flag inappropriate retailer behaviour, call 1800 736 2000 or email feedback@stb.gov.sg.

TIPPING

It is not usual practice to tip in Singapore, although it is appreciated by service staff. Most hotels and restaurants quote prices as "++," which includes 10 per cent service charge and 7 per cent goods and services tax (GST).

VISITOR CENTRES

Orchard: 216 Orchard Road (Next to orchardgateway@emerald). Opens from 8.30am to 9.30pm daily.

Ion Orchard: Level 1 Concierge, 2 Orchard Turn. Opens 10am to 10pm daily.

Chinatown: 2 Banda Street Open from Mon to Fri from 9am to 9pm and Weekends and Public Holidays from 9am to 10pm

LANGUAGE

English is the spoken language, though Singlish – a collection of colloquial catch phrases and lingo – dominates everyday conversations among locals. Mandarin, Malay, Tamil and various dialects are also used.

CONNECTIVITY

Register for free public Wi-Fi service with your foreign mobile number at any Wireless@SG hotspots across Singapore, and receive your login details via an SMS message. Overseas charges may apply.

Buy a Singapore prepaid SIM card from Singapore Visitor Centre (orchardgateway), Changi recommends and telecommunication retail shops island-wide.

SHOPPING DISTRICTS.

ORCHARD ROAD

Any shopaholic worth their salt knows that Orchard Road is the place for your shopping pilgrimage. With swanky shopping malls lining the entire stretch, your only question will be: where to begin? Find big-name brands and high-street favourites at ION Orchard and Paragon, and head to Orchard Central to find some of the best local designers Singapore has to offer.

TIONG BAHRU

Old-world charm meets offbeat quirkiness in Singapore's hippest neighbourhood: Tiong Bahru. Pound the history-laden pavements of Eng Hoon Street, Moh Guan Terrace, Seng Poh Road, and Chay Yan Street for an eclectic mix of fashion, homewares, books, and everything else in between.

KAMPONG GLAM

This former Arab enclave is now a must-visit for any fashionista seeking unique finds at wallet-friendly prices. Look out for Haji Lane: a deceptively innocuous street offering one-of-a-kind apparel, accessories, and hole-in-the-wall boutiques. And don't forget to take a stroll along the parallel stretches of Kandahar Street and Bali Lane where you'll find more niche, boutique stores. Done with shopping? Check out the numerous museums, national monuments, and temples that line the streets too!

CHINATOWN

Straddling the line between old and new is Chinatown, the heritage-rich enclave that's buzzing all year round. But make no mistake: this kitschy tourist hotspot is also home to hidden shopping gems. Get your hands on stylish threads unique to Singapore that aren't your run-of-the-mill high street finds. Look out for Amoy Street and Club Street in particular!

MARINA BAY

Undoubtedly, Marina Bay is Singapore's swankiest shopping district with glitzy malls peppered all around the city centre. The crown jewel of the area? The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, of course, where shoppers can get their designer fix with high-end luxury labels like Maison Martin Margiela, Diane von Furstenberg, Armani, and Moschino – credit cards, beware!

Further North towards the City Hall district lies a host of retail options, and new to the scene is Capitol Piazza, a swish shopping complex where the historic Capitol Theatre once stood. Hit the racks of trend-setting international and local boutiques that'll have you reaching for your wallets.

HARBOURFRONT

Leave the hustle and bustle of the city centre and head south to VivoCity. This ginormous mall is home to international high street brands and local gems you won't find elsewhere. And once you've maxed out the plastic, cross the bridge to Sentosa island to hit the beach and take in the dazzling array of tourist attractions.

THINGS TO DO.

Must-do experiences in the Lion City (with a bit of shopping on the side!)

Photo credit:
Marina Bay Sands

01 Start your stay on a high and enjoy cocktails and one spectacular view at The Bar at Spago at Marina Bay Sands. Gaze out over the city's most famous rooftop pool and soak up the skyline at sunset, then drop by Marina Bay Shoppes to indulge in designer shopping.

10 Bayfront Ave, Sands SkyPark, Tower 2 Level 57, S(018956) • www.marinabaysands.com

02 While you're in the area, drop by the ArtScience Museum, which looks like a giant lotus flower. Its new exhibit, FUTURE WORLD is a mind-blowing display of digital aquariums, flowers blooming from walls and a crystal universe. Brilliant for kids.

6 Bayfront Ave, S(018974) • www.marinabaysands.com/museum

03 Also close to Marina Bay Shoppes is Gardens by the Bay. Enter the Cloud Forest to stand by a waterfall and wander through an indoor rainforest, and visit the Flower Dome for colourful seasonal displays of beautiful blooms. Families, don't miss the water play area in the Children's Garden!

18 Marina Gardens Dr, S(018953) • www.gardensbythebay.com.sg

04 Dine in Dempsey Hill: Surrounded by lush greenery, this enclave of cafes and restaurants is a local favourite. Come by during the day to catch the beautiful homewares boutique Affordable Style Files, or indulge in a pampering session at Spa Esprit. Enjoy Asian fusion fare at Chop Suey (which is particularly beautiful at night), feast on the famous curry at Samy's (served on a banana leaf!) or drop by The Green Door bar for cocktails under the stars.

06 Head to Sentosa Island to have brunch at the very hip Tanjong Beach Club.

If you're travelling with kids, Universal Studios and water play park Port of Lost Wonder at Palawan beach are must-dos. And if you have any energy left, super mall VivoCity is five minutes away by taxi.

120 Tanjong Beach Walk, S(098942)

05 Enjoy a free-flow brunch buffet, Singapore style, at mezza9 at the Grand Hyatt. Feast on oysters, lobster and more – with free-flow Champagne. The Grand Hyatt is perfectly located on Orchard Road, Singapore's famous shopping strip. Department store Takashimaya is next door, and across the road is DFS (Duty Free Shopping)!

Grand Hyatt Singapore, 10 Scotts Road, S(228211)

08 For afternoon tea with a local twist, head to Hotel Fort Canning. There's so much to love about this heritage hotel with a boutique feel, from its lush surroundings to its chilled-out vibe. The Tissetanta Lounge is renowned for its cocktails with local herb infusions, but the afternoon tea here (3-6pm daily) is perfect for a gathering – and it's fabulous value at $25++ for canapés and sweets with a Singaporean twist, including a lovely little kueh pastry!

11 Canning Walk S(178881) • www.hfcsingapore.com

09 Explore Tiong Bahru, loved by locals for its 1920s architecture and cool cafes and boutiques. Start with breakfast at Tiong Bahru bakery on Eng Hoon Street and wander past the colourful murals at the wet market to Yiong Siak street, where you'll find a sprinkling of unique shops and beautiful book store Books Actually. After your walk, you'll want to stop by Plain Vanilla for one of its famous cupcakes!

07 Don't leave Singapore without trying the award-winning chilli crab at Jumbo's Seafood at The East Coast Seafood Centre. Grab an outdoor table, enjoy the lights of the ships as you dine, and go for a stroll by the water after dinner.

Blk 126 East Coast Parkway #01-07/08; East Coast Seafood Centre, S(449883) • www.jumboseafood.com.sg

10 No stay in Singapore is complete without feasting on our famous hawker dishes: char kway teow, oyster omelette and satay are just some of the must-eats. Lau Pa Sat Festival Market is a favourite for its heritage architecture, and Boon Tat street next to the market transforms into bustling 'satay street' once the sun sets. Grab an outdoor table and enjoy the atmosphere!
