Race Map and Highlights	<h1>TIPS FOR AN AMAZING GRAND PRIX™ SEASON SINGAPORE EXPERIENCE</h1>
Must-See Highlights	From 26 September to 5 October, Grand Prix™ Season Singapore (GPSS) 2025 turns the city into a playground of pulsating parties, show-stopping performances, and turbo-charged action. Here’s how to navigate the thrills like a pro:
Food and Drink	Take the smarter route Leave the wheels behind and hop on Singapore’s ultra-connected train and bus network. It’s quick, reliable, and race-weekend-proof. Ride-hailing platforms like  are handy too, though expect traffic hold-ups near the circuit.
Nightlife and Entertainment	Track those closures Several streets in the Marina Bay area, including Esplanade Drive and Collyer Quay, will be closed for the race. Save yourself the detours and check for real-time updates via navigation apps or the Land Transport Authority (LTA) website before heading out.
Attractions and Lifestyle Events	Stay cool and hydrated With the island’s tropical temperatures, dress light, slap on some sunscreen, pack a fan or mini mist spray, and keep your fluids up. Water stations and convenience stores are easy to find, so make good use of them.
Retail	Safety first In case of emergencies, dial 999 for the police or 995 for an ambulance. Save these numbers in your phone so you’re always prepared.
Sports	Need a little help getting around? Skip the guesswork and swing by a Singapore Visitor Centre – the friendly folks there have you covered with maps, recommendations, and insider tips on everything from where to grab a bite to where to score the quirkiest keepsakes.
